

welcome visitors from Sydney University's Rare Books and Special Collections

Exciting news from our museum this week! We were thrilled to welcome a group of visitors from Sydney University's Rare Books and Special Collections.

Leen, Charlotte, Fiona, Anne, and Julie were the enthusiastic individuals who embarked on a fascinating tour with us. They showed a keen interest in every aspect of our museum, with a special focus on our remarkable Common Press from the 1700s.

We were delighted by their enthusiasm and engagement throughout the visit, and we're eagerly looking forward to hosting more students and staff from Sydney University. Who knows, they might even get to participate in one of our courses in the future!

Seeing their awe and amazement as they witnessed our exhibits in action, spanning from the 1700s to the 1950s, was truly gratifying. It's moments like these that remind us of the enduring power of history and the joy it brings to all who explore it.
